ROCKFORD PARTY BANQUET HERE

PURPOSE WAS INSPECTION OF CITY'S "GREAT WHITE WAY" WERE PLEASED.

WERE DINED AT NACHUSA HOUSE

Mayor Brinton Responded to Toast—Chicago Man Reviewed Progress of Ornamental Street Lighting.

Forty business men of Seventh street, Rockford, visited Dixon last evening. The party inspected Dixon's "Great White Way," and banqueted at the Nachusa House.

The party came by way of Rochelle, where they also visited the carnival being held in that city.

These men had known for six months that Dixon would install the new lighting system and they waited all this time for an opportunity to inspect the lights here. They expressed themselves as highly pleased with the system and returned home well satisfied with their journey.

Fifty at Banquet.

Fifty men attended the banquet.
There were present the officials of the I. N. U. company; Adam Gsch-windt, general manager and vice president of the Rockford Electric company, was toastmaster.

Mayor W. B. Brinton of this city spoke in praise of the city's improvements in general and the new lighting system in particular.

Vic Olsen, president of the Seventh Street Business Men's association of Rockford, spoke, congratulating the city of Dixon on the improvements.
Mr. Olsen declared he was pleased with what he saw at Dixon in the way of improvements.

J. H. Allen of the General Electric company of Chicago, was another speaker at the banquet. He reviewed the progress made in ornamental street lighting, declaring that the type of light used here was making a hit wherever installed. He declared that where the light is installed the people are well satisfied.

The men brought from Rockford a book of songs and for an hour and a half after the banquet they sang songs and enjoyed the evening immensely.

At 7:30 the party departed for Rockford, meeting at Rochelle 23 cars filled with members of the Rockford Booster club, who spent the afternoon at Rochelle.

Fifty-two of the same lights used here will be installed in boulevard lighting in the section of Rockford represented by these men.

RAILROAD MAN KILLED AT ASHTON FELL FROM TOP OF A CAR AND FRACTURED SKULL—TRAIN TAKING WATER.

Ashton, Oct. 3.—Special to Telegraph—A member of the Northwestern steel gang working near Union Grove, fell from a box car at about midnight last night here and was found dead by a brakeman. As near as Coroner Stephan can ascertain the man's name is Riley. From papers on his person it was found that he went to Clinton last evening and was returning to Chicago to get his pay. The train stopped here to take water and while so doing the brakeman saw the man fall from the top of the car next to the engine. When picked up it was found that his skull was fractured and it is thought he met instant death. He weighs about 225 pounds and is between 45 and 50 years old. The inquest was held late this afternoon.

WHERE GRADUATES STUDY THIS YEAR

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT GIVES PARTIAL LIST OF WHEREABOUTS OF GRADUATES.

County Superintendent L. W. Miller has compiled a partial report showing where last year's graduates from the country schools are studying this year. The report is naturally incomplete inasmuch as many of the graduates have not indicated their intentions, but it is of interest in that it shows that many of the students are returning to the rural school for review work, indicating a confidence in the ability of the teachers of Lee county's country schools.
The report is:

SMOKE DAMAGES LADIES' FINE HATS

MISS WINTER'S MILLINERY ES-TABLISHMENT THREATENED BY FIRE TODAY.

Fire, which probably started from a hot water heater in the basement under Miss M. M. Winters' millinery store, threatened the destruction of the building at 8:30 this morning, but the quick work of the firemen prevented the spread of the blaze through the old frame building. The fire burned several boxes in the basement and got into the floor, but was finally extinguished before much damage, aside from smoke to the millinery stock and slight damage to Stephan & Rossiter's barber shop, resulted. Miss Winter has insurance to cover any smoke damage.

CRESTON BANK CLOSES ITS DOORS TROUBLE OF INSTITUTION WITH

COUNTRYSIDE.

TELEGRAPH'S STORY CORBORATED

George E. Stocking, Believed Solvent By Friends, Leaves Rochelle for His Health.

Rockford, Oct. 3.—Special—Citizens of Ogle county towns were stirred today by the announcement of the closing of the Bank of Creston, a private institution owned by George E. Stocking of Rochelle, and carrying deposits of $120,000.

The bank was closed after friends, including former business associates of Stocking, had gone over his financial affairs with him. They have expressed the opinion that his assets are more than sufficient to meet all demands. Persons familiar with the affairs of the banker are reported to have figured his assets at close to $440,000 and his liabilities a little over $300,000.

"Mr. Stocking is perfectly solvent," Attorney C. F. Gardner of Rochelle declared.

Banker Away for Health.

Mr. Stocking is said to have left Rochelle on an automobile trip, on the advice of his friends, in an effort to recuperate his health. He is described as having been on the verge of a nervous breakdown from overwork. Denial was made in Rochelle that the banker was in a sanitarium.

Announcement was made that Mr.
Stocking's holdings in the Stocking Trust and Savings bank at Rochelle, a state institution, had been taken over by local men and that the bank is in no way connected with the bank of Creston and is itself in excellent condition.

A flurry created in Rochelle by the report of the closing of the Creston bank, is said to have subsided soon.

May Be Opened Again.

"It was decided to close the bank at Creston until we were more fully acquainted with Mr. Stocking's financial condition," Attorney Gardner said. "I am confident it will resume operations soon. At a conference yesterday the directors expressed confidence in his solvency."

Mr. Stocking's threatened breakdown is said to have been due to work he had shouldered in the canning industry in which he is heavily interested. He owns a cannery in Rochelle which is said to be in good financial condition, and has holdings in another plant there and in plants in Rockford and Byron. He bought much of the interest of the late P.
H. Honhandel Jr., with whom he was associated in these industries. He is one of the three executors of the estate of Mr. Honhandel, who died about a year ago.

Owens 1200 Acre Farm.

Included in Mr. Stocking's assets are 1200 acres of farm land adjacent to Rochelle, valued at $250 an acre, in which he has a large equity.

Mr. Stocking established the bank at Creston about ten years ago. He had been rated for several years as one of Ogle county's wealthiest citizens. It was said tonight there has been no talk of a receivership or bankruptcy proceedings.

Story Corroborated.

The above story, taken from the Chicago Tribune, corroborates the story of the Stocking matter published several days ago in the Telegraph.

BRYAN CABLES TO DEMAND PROTECTION

Washington, D. C., Oct. 3.—Special to Telegraph—Secretary of State Bryan today cabled Charge d'Affairs Williams at Peking to demand from the Chinese government, protection for all foreigners in TsaoYang and reparation for all injuries to foreigners.

HALL COLLAPSES.

New York, Oct. 3.—Special to Telegraph—A hundred persons fell 15 feet in a screaming mass in an uptown hall today through the collapse of a gallery. Several were seriously injured. The hall was being used as a synagogue.

THOUGHT INSANE MAN MIGHT KNOW OF BRYAN DEATH

STERLING AUTHORITIES QUES-TIONED GEO. ENGLAND FOR INFORMATION.

HAD MURDER DELUSIONS

Believed He Had Killed a Man and Threw Body Into the River.

For a time yesterday the Sterling authorities thought they had found something bearing on the mysterious death of Leonard Bryan, the former Dixon newspaper man whose body was found in the river at Sterling a year ago last Christmas. The suspicion that some information might be obtained came during the examination of George England for insanity yesterday, England being adjudged insane and committed to Watertown.

Has Murder Delusion.

England, also known as "Wilson," labors under the delusion that he killed a man and threw his body into the river. In the belief that he might know something of the Bryan mystery, he was closely questioned, but his answers were such that the judge and commission were led to believe that his story was a delusion. He declares that on a cold night some weeks or months ago he met a stranger on the bridge and was ordered to throw up his hands.
He struck the man over the head with a beer bottle and threw him into the river, he says.

Story is Peculiar.

Again he declared that the place he met the stranger was near a high bank, along a narrow shelf of rock, and that he talked with him some time before throwing him into the river. He declared that he went back to the spot next day and found the stranger lying on a sandbar, but the latter refused to talk to him when addressed and rolled over into the water.

Told Story Often.

England has told the story often with numerous variations, but always stuck to the main point—that he threw the body of a stranger into the river, after clubbing him with a beer bottle. These tales led the officials to interrogate him, but so rambling was his story that it was impossible for them to get a straightforward statement from him.

Son is Missing.

Although the complaint was made by England's son and while many neighbors had entered complaint by letter and otherwise, all disappeared this morning when wanted for witnesses.

SHERIFF UNABLE TO CONTROL STRIKERS

Calumet, Mich., Oct. 3.—Special to Telegraph—Sheriff Hepting wired the governor today that he was unable to control the strike situation.
Troops have been sent.

MOVE TO NEW ROOM.

Chiverton & Quick today opened their furniture store in the Carney building on First street and many friends admired the arrangement of the new room. With increased floor space they gain better facilities to display their stock.

PROGRESSIVEISM EXPOSED AT COMPTON

SEVERAL HUNDRED HEAR FOR-MER SENATOR FUNK AND VIRGINIA BROOKS

BALL GAME WAS A FEATURE

Ladies Served Dinner—People of Village Worked Hard to Entertain.

Compton, Oct. 3.—Special to Telegraph—Former State Senator Frank Funk of Bloomington opened the political campaign in Lee county today at Compton with a speech on "Pro-gressivism" this afternoon in the beautiful park in the village. His speech was listened to with interest by a large crowd. He told why the new party was formed, how it was formed and what it had done, was doing and intends to do. The West Brooklyn band gave a splendid concert prior to the speech.

Funk was the party's candidate a year ago for governor.

Two hundred were present at the picnic including eight auto loads from Dixon.

Woman Speaks.

Mrs. John F. Bass, wife of the chairman of the progressive state committee, was present, as was Mrs.
Virginia Brooks Washburne, both following Mr. Funk with speeches.
The subject of Mrs. Washburne's address was "Our New Citizenship."
She was listened to with interest.

Program Tonight.

This evening in the opera house John Erwin and Secretary E. T. Balley of Dixon will address the crowd.

Following the program in the park this afternoon the people were entertained with a ball game between the Mendota Regulars and Dixon Browns. Mendota was loaded to win, having secured several Three-I league men and four pitchers. Their purpose was to beat Dixon to a finish.

Ladies Serve Dinner.

The M. E. ladies served dinner, at which several hundred fed abundantly.

The people of the village, regardless of politics, worked earnestly to make the picnic a success. Stands and platforms were erected where necessary and all gave a helping hand to the affair.

The park at Compton is a beautiful place, one of the best of its kind in the county to hold such affairs.
The people take great pride in their park.

Among those present from Dixon were Howard Johnson, E. T. Bailey, Clarence Stackpole, A. E. Simonson,
C. C. Buckaloo, W. W. Harden, H.
L. Fordham, B. F. Downing, Mark Smith. Many from Dixon came in the afternoon. Evan L. Reed of Rock Falls was also present.

HARVEY ESCAPES PEN BY VERDICT

YOUNG FELLOW FOUND GUILTY OF SIMPLE ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

After being out 24 hours, during which their arguments waxed exceedingly warm, the jury in the case of the People vs. George Harvey, who was charged with assault with attempt to commit rape, returned a verdict at 9:30 o'clock this morning finding the young fellow guilty of simple assault and battery. On the first ballot, taken yesterday, the jury stood evenly divided on the more serious charge, but gradually the six were won over. Judge Farrand will pass sentence later.

INSURANCE CASE TO JURY.

The case of Martin vs. Macabees in which the daughter of the late Charles Guyot who was drowned at Sterling, seeks to recover $2,000, the amount of a policy held by deceased in the order, went to the jury at 2 p. m. Brooks & Brooks represented the plaintiff and Trusdell, Smith & Leech were counsel for the defendant.

BANK DIRECTORS ADOPT RESOLUTIONS

CONCERNING DEATH OF LATE PRESIDENT S. C. ELLIS AT A MEETING HELD OCT. 1.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the City National bank, held Wednesday, Oct. 1st, the following resolutions concerning the death of the late president, Samuel C. Ellis, were adopted:

WHEREAS, since the last meeting of this board, the respected and esteemed president of this bank, Samuel C. Ellis, has departed this life, after a long and loyal service extending over the entire period of the existence of our organization, and of its predecessors;

And Whereas, the valuable services of our late President make it appropriate that some record should be made of our appreciation of the continued watchfulness and loyalty with which the interests of our stockholders and depositors have been guarded by him for so many years;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That we hereby inscribe upon our records the fact that we have suffered a loss that is deeply regretted in the death of our president.

He was an active factor in the incorporation of this bank, in the year of a former generation. He carried the work of this bank steadily forward from a small and modest beginning to its present magnitude, largely by the sagacity and integrity of his own character.

During the days of the prime of his manhood all of his best hours were given to the work of this bank.
As old age came upon him, his mind and heart still clung to the old associations and to the old banking office where his time had so long been spent.

He had but few ambitions in life, except to care for the comfort of his family, for the welfare of his church and for the safety of his depositors.
This bank received and profited by his fidelity for many years, through years of panic and financial disaster, as well as those of prosperity and success.

Now that his final word has been spoken, and his last earthly account has been closed, we record this tribute of regard to his memory.

MRS. GEO. REMMERS IS CALLED BEYOND

ESTIMABLE GRAND DETOUR WO-MAN PASSED AWAY THURS-DAY NIGHT.

Mrs. George Remmers, one of the most estimable women in the vicinity of Grand Detour, passed away at her home two and one-half miles north of that village at 11:15 Thursday night, after an illness of but five weeks. The funeral service will be held at the Christian church at Grand Detour Sunday at 3 p. m., with burial in the Grand Detour cemetery.

Mrs. Remmers, had she lived until Jan. 26, would have been 39 years of age, is survived by her husband, three children and several sisters and brothers, to whom the condolence of many friends who will join in mourning her passing, is extended. The obituary will be published later.

IN MEMORY OF

MRS. ELLA LONG
Farewell, oh dear, beloved one,
Farewell 'till we meet once more.
When our earthly tasks are ended
And we pass to yonder shore.
Oh! our grief's too deep and bitter
For our feeble words to tell.
For to know her was to love her
And we knew and loved her well.

We remember in our sadness
How her patient spirit lent Strength and courage, love and comfort
And spread cheer wherever she went.

Peace be to her gentle spirit;
Her reward she's found above;
We will miss her sadly, sorely,
And remember her with love.
—Mrs. Bessie Struckman.

APPOINTMENTS SOON FORTHCOMING

BISHOP McDOWELL STATES CON-FERENCE WILL HAVE LIST
WITHIN 24 HOURS.

SHIELDS IN NOTABLE ADDRESS

Bishop McDowell Makes Strong Plea, Declaring Church Needs Increased Spiritual Power—Retired List.

Freeport, Oct. 3.—It is quite likely that within 24 hours the Rock River conference, in session at Freeport, will have the appointments for next year. Bishop McDowell declared yesterday afternoon that the conference would likely get through the routine business and would reach the question of appointments much earlier than at first thought.

Many ministers have quitted their fears of being removed. It is stated on good authority that in practically all cases where a request for the retention of the pastor has been made by the congregation, the request will be honored.

The probabilities are that the conference will adjourn Monday.

About Dixon Minister.

Editor Crowley of the Freeport Standard has the following to say about Rev. John Williams of Dixon, the article appearing in the editorial column:

Rev. John Williams of Dixon is attending the conference. He is one of the oldest ministers in the conference, although he is not in active service. For 24 years Rev. Williams was connected with the New York Sun and Herald as a writer of religious topics, and as a writer and orator he stood at the top of the list during his active days.

Shields in Notable Address.

Dr. Jas. K. Shields, former pastor of the First M. E. church here, and late Secretary of the State Anti-Slavery League, gave the principal address. His subject was the religious problem of Chicago. At the beginning he told the losses the big down town churches have suffered the past ten years and how many have closed their doors, or to combine in hte interests of greater efficiency. Every church in the city will have to face the problem sooner or later, if it is not up against it now, said the speaker.

Within the confines of North Ave. on the north, Western Ave. on the west and 35th St. on the south there are, according to Dr. Shields, 500-000 people who should be won for protestantism. Mr. Shields characterized the situation as "a challenge from hell to the combined forces of protestantism, unless the church gets a new lease of power."

Dr. Shields assailed the action of the church book committee in selling the Methodist Book Concern at 40 Washington St. and moving to a new site on Wabash Ave., near the red-light district. "This conference should adopt a resolution condemning this action so hot—that it has to be handled with asbestos," said Dr.
Shields.

Federation is Hope.

Federation, according to the speaker, is the only hope of saving the church people in the downtown districts. In the suburbs where such depressing conditions do not exist, said the speaker, denominationalism is all right, but those lines must be cast aside and a federation of the evangelical bodies effected to secure the desired result.

McDowell Makes Plea.

In a short but powerful and eloquent plea, Bishop McDowell stated that the church needs an increase in spiritual power more than anything else. He quoted John Wesley, who is alleged to have said in substance that the original impulse of Methodism would last 100 to 150 years, and then, unless it acquired a new impulse, it would go the way of the other spiritual movements and become an ecclesiasticism.

The great question, said he, is how can this modern church be so spiritualized that it shall possess that impulse that will enable it to meet in a new day the task that lies before it. We can socialize Methodism after a time, but the question is to get a spiritual grip upon the city and the county that will make our social

WEST BROOKLYN

Attend the year's biggest dance,
October 15th.

Directors' meeting of the Farmers' Elevator Co., Monday afternoon.
John Yost of South Brooklyn was here a business Monday forenoon.

He visited his parents in Mendota Sunday and met with a bad accident to his hand, smashing his little finger. He attempted to raise the top of his auto before starting for home and caught the finger between two of the irons, smashing it severely. The accident is doubly unfortunate because it is near corn husking.

Adolph Chaon was here on business Tuesday.

of the local court C. O. F. The Forester is the official organ of the order and makes mention of the great progress made by the local court in the last three years. The one hundred anniversary mark and the new club rooms opened last December are giving special mention as well as the donation of the main altar to the local church by the court. December 1st will mark the first anniversary of the opening of the club rooms and that time a good share of the membership were a bit skeptical as to the prospects of the new venture, but everyone is unanimous in pronouncing the club rooms a good thing, both for the court and the year is reached.

Several of our townsmen were at the Farmers Elevator Tuesday looking at the old creamery well covered by the elevator building to see if it was still usable after thirteen years of discard. The men found to their surprise that the well was still good, and steps may be taken to pump to furnish water for part of our citizens in the place of our city well which has been pronounced by the well experts as "lost." The factory also has a deep well and the one at the elevator can be used some good water should be had from them. Again the good judgment of those who built the elevator building now owned by the Farmers is shown, for many people having such a well would have filled it up and put an end to its usefulness for all time. The well was saved and may now be the means of saving W.
Brooklyn from a water famine. The expert says the city well is filled with flour sand and a new one will have to be built if the village is to continue its present water works system.

Edward Bresson of Viola township was a visitor here Tuesday

West Brooklyn is about the driest it has even been. Some lay it to the women acquiring the vote but before.

is going home.—From the Maryville

Pole Star.

Any clear night look at the dipper or great bear, and in a direct line from the two first stars in the quadrilateral of this constellation measure with the eye about five times the distance between them in a straight line, and you will locate a luminary a little brighter than its neighbors; this is the Pole star. Astronomically speaking, there are no fixed stars; so-called fixed stars are supposed to be the suns of other systems of worlds, themselves performing immense revolutions through the fields of space.
However, of all the bodies which scintillate in the starry night, the only one that remains motionless or seems motionless is the Pole star. At any moment of the year, day or night, its station remains unchanged. All other stars, on the contrary, turn in twenty-four hours round it taken as the center of the mighty vortex. For this reason it is the most important star to navigators in determining their course.—Christian Herald.

Wheat in Brazil.

In the not distant future it is not unlikely that the United States and Canada will have other competition this side of the Atlantic in the world's wheat market than the Argentine Republic. It has been discovered that wheat can be cultivated with advantage in nearly all the states of Brazil.
"Under the encouragement of the law of March 17, 1910," says La Brasil Economique, of Rio de Janeiro, "a propaganda has been prosecuted by the minister of agriculture for the cultivation of wheat. The beginning was in the state of Rio Grande do Sul. All the newspapers gave their aid. The production of wheat, which in 1909 did not exceed 15,000 tons, was 30,000 tons in 1910, and since 1911 has far exceeded the latter figure.
In 1912 the number of wheat growers increased and vast areas have been prepared for plantations in 1913.

Women Telegraphers.

The old labor paper, the Revolution, in its issue of March 16, 1871, chronicled the fact that two women telegraph operators of New York had built a city line, opened offices in Broadway and other places, purchased a portion of the Manhattan company's wires, and started out to "co-operate with all the opposition lines." In 1870 there were only 350 women employed as telephone and telegraph operators, but none of them, even at that early date, had charge of an office in San Francisco. In 1907 the number of telephone operators alone had increased to 76,638. No corresponding figures are available to cover the women telegraph operators, but as far back as 1902 the number was nearly three thousand.

Miraculous Fish.

In a suburb of Constantinople is a Greek Catholic church dedicated to the Virgin of Baloukli. One may see there a basin fed by a spring, in which swim a number of red fish.
The pious say that these fishes have a miraculous origin which dates from the epoch when Mohamet II. took Constantinople. At the end of the siege a holy man was engaged in frying fish, when it was announced that the Turks had entered the city. He responded, "That is impossible! I should only believe it if these fishes were to return to the water." Immediately the fish leaped from the frying pan and threw themselves into the water. The orthodox later constructed a church at the very place where this miracle occurred.

Electrical Tree.

Scientists tell us that there has been discovered in the forests of India a strange plant which possesses in a very high degree astonishing electric and magnetic power. The hand that breaks a leaf from it receives immediately a shock equal to that which is produced by the conductor of an inductive coil. At a distance of 30 yards a magnetic needle is affected by
it. The energy of this singular force varies, but it is most powerful when the sun is hottest, and in times of storms its intensity increases in striking proportion. One never by any chance sees a bird or an insect light on the electric plant. Nature seems to warn them that they would find their death.—Christian Herald.

Some Cigars Are Left-Handed.

It isn't because the cigar is badly made that the wrapper sometimes comes uncurled—it is because the cigar is a left-handed one. Cigar makers must be ambidextrous. They cut the wrapper and leaf on the bias, rolling it from left to right on the roller, while the other piece is rolled with the left hand, from right to left. A nervous smoker, twisting and twirling his cigar has no trouble with a right hand one; but if it happens to be a left-hand one it may come undone.

Veritable Plague of Rats.

It is said that rats have nearly taken possession of Haskell's Island in Casco Bay, off Harpswell. Their paths can be seen over the banks and fields.
A sportsman who set some traps on the island, hoping to catch minks, returned in a few hours to find seven rats, some a foot long, in his traps.

Makes Artificial Coal.

Dr. F. R. Begun, the scientist who has been conducting experiments in producing artificial coal, has, by employing a high temperature and a high pressure, changed cellulose to peat in a few hours. The same change by the process employed by nature, he states, requires 7,000,000 years.

ARRANGEMENT OF NEST BOX

Canadian Expert Recommends Use of Earth or Overturned Sod, Covered With Straw or Chaff.

A nest can be made out of an old box about 12 inches square and six inches deep. Professor Graham of the Ontario Agricultural college recommends that "some earth or an overturned sod be placed in the bottom of the box, taking care to have the corners very full so that no eggs can roll out from the hen and get chilled.
Next put on about two inches of straw or chaff; and then put a few earthenware eggs into the nest. Place the nest in some pen where nothing can disturb the hen, and put her on after dark. Feed and water must be within easy reach and a dust bath should also be convenient. If the hen is setting quietly the next day it will be safe to put the eggs under her."

Another nest box that has given considerable satisfaction, is made in three compartments. A 12 inch board cut in three four foot lengths and one used for the top, one for the back, and the other for the bottom. The partitions and ends are made of the same material cut in one foot lengths.
Along the front is a four inch strip to keep in the litter. To this is hinged a slatted door, which, when opened forms a platform in front of the nest.
The work of filling the nests and set-

Arrangement of Nests.

ting the hen can be proceeded with as already described. These boxes may be piled one above the other.

When the hens are let off the nests to feed, the doors of the nest boxes should be closed, which compels the hens to remain on the floor until they have had a chance to feed. The hens will not return to the same nests, but this is rather likely to be of benefit than otherwise. All hens do not set at exactly the same temperature, and an occasional change averages up the temperature for all the settings of eggs.

No hen should be allowed to set, unless she is free from lice. The infection of the bird is conducive to rapid multiplication of any lice there may be on her. These will make her irritable and a poor setter. In addition, should she bring off a hatch in such a condition, the chicks will be open to infection. Dust the hen well with flowers of sulphur or some other insect powder before setting, and again a day or two before the hatch finishes.

About the seventh day the eggs should be tested, the infertile ones removed, and the balance put back in the nests. After testing it is usually found that the eggs from four hens can be put under three. This leaves one hen with no eggs, and a new setting can be put under her.

When the chicks arrive two or three batches can be put with one hen, which leaves more hens at liberty to sit, or if there is no more hatching to be done they can be put back in the laying pens.

The day before shipping live fowls, feed hard grain.

Satisfying the appetite adds greatly to the thrift of the flock.

It is estimated that five chickens will yield a pound of feathers.

Cleaning dropping boards is a chore that cannot be done too often.

Whatever interferes with growth retards and diminishes egg production.

On cool, damp, rainy nights close all the ventilating windows of the hen house.

The very first thing to do on noticing signs of illness in a bird, is to isolate it.

The best nest for laying hens is close to the floor, darkened, and easily movable.

Feed plenty of charcoal, as it is one of the best things for keeping the poultry healthy.

Eggs cannot be produced without nitrogenous food in some shape. Bones are absolutely essential.

Do not forget that your fowls need green food. If it is impossible to give them a change of yard or runs, see that they get some kind of green food during the daily feed.

A LIMIT ON YOUR POSSIBILITIES

No person on earth can place a limit on your possibilities, but it is equally true that a growing account in our bank will increase them.
Remember that one dollar in a good bank is worth more than five dollars in anybody's pocket. Do you keep your money hid at home? If so you do wrong to take money out of circulation for it was made to circulate and not to hoard, and when kept in circulation is the life blood of trade and good prices and you do yourself and the community an injustice when you block the wheels of circulation. Money placed in our bank draws interest day and night. You will be surprised how big a dollar will grow in a few years when you fasten the interest to it which this bank pays. If your name is not on our books it would give us pleasure to put it there. A bank account will give you prestige you may never have enjoyed before. Why not start one today? This bank has progressed with the times. Its methods meet today's requirements. It solicits your account on the basis of meritorious service.

WEST BROOKLYN

Directors' meeting of the Farmers' Elevator Co., Monday afternoon. John Yost of South Brooklyn was here a business Monday forenoon. He visited his parents in Mendota Sunday and met with a bad accident to his hand, smashing his little finger. He attempted to raise the top of his auto before starting for home and caught the finger between two of the irons, smashing it severely. Julius Delhotal spent Monday afternoon in West Brooklyn. Several of our townsmen were at the Farmers Elevator Tuesday looking at the old creamery well covered by the elevator building to see if it was still usable after thirteen years of discard. The men found to their surprise that the well was still o. k., and steps may be taken to equip to furnish water for part of our citizens in the place of our city well which has been pronounced by the well experts as "lost." The tile factory also has a deep well and if the one at the elevator can be fixed some good water should be had from them. Again the good judgment of those who built the elevator building now owned by the Farmers is shown, for many people having such a well would have filled it up and put an end to its usefulness for all time. The well was saved and may now be the means of saving W. Brooklyn from a water famine. The expert says the city well is filled with flour sand and a new one will have to be built if the village is to continue its present water works system.

Edward Bresson of Viola township was a visitor here Tuesday morning.

Servia's Favorite Dish.

The favorite dish of the Servians, says a writer in the Wide World Magazine, consists of a lamb or sucking pig roasted whole over the ashes. A pit is first dug and filled with wood—vine branches for choice, as they give the best flavor—and the fire is then allowed to burn for several hours. The carcass is next impaled with a stout stick and slowly turned round and round over the embers. The result, after six hours' turning, is a very luscious meal, for all the gravy is kept in and the meat is unusually tender. No picnic in Servia is considered complete without this delicacy. The story goes that, on one of his campaigns Napoleon noticed a group of Servian soldiers cooking meat in this way, whereupon he came up, inquired what they were doing, tasted the meat, and was delighted with it.

Penny Sells for $112.50.

A two day sale of a collection of British, Saxon and English coins began at Sotheby's recently, a London correspondent of the New York Sun writes. An Anglo-Saxon penny of King Edward, extremely fine and believed to be unpublished and unique, brought the highest price, $112.50. Another inscribed "Stater," by Andocemus, $90. A penny of "Edward the Elder," fine and very rare, $90. Another of the Edward the Elder pennies, $87.50. There was a sale also of books and catalogues, at which a complete set of the "Pipe Roll Society Publications" brought about $90.

CONFESSES MANY BOMB OUTRAGES

Davis, Alias O'Donnell, Confessed When Angered by Iron Workers.

SECRETARY ALSO ARRESTED

Man Taken in New York Asserts Nation-Wide Conspiracy Thought to Have Been Broken Up Still Exists.

New York, Oct. 3.—George E. Davis, alias George McDonald, a member of the International Structural Iron Workers' union, was arrested in this city and in a confession to the authorities revealed a series of remarkable dynamite plots.

Davis was the George O'Donnell who figured in the trial at Indianapolis that resulted in the conviction of Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, and 37 of his associates. His arrest and its consequences round up the work the federal government started more than two years ago when the dynamiting of bridges and steel frame buildings all over the country became a national scandal.

All the explosions Davis says he caused were touched on and testified to at the dynamiters' trial in Indianapolis, but the fact Davis caused them remained unrevealed until he himself told of it.

High Official Arrested.

Davis' confession resulted in the arrest in Indianapolis of Harry Jones, secretary-treasurer of the iron workers' union. His confession supplements the evidence presented at the Indianapolis trial and makes fresh charges against some of the men there convicted and now in prison. Some of his revelations concern President Ryan, who is now out on bail pending appeal from a prison sentence of seven years.

Among the most important dynamiting "jobs" in which Davis was a participant was the blowing up of the new bridge of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad at Mount Vernon, N. Y., on September 3, 1911.

To New Yorkers the most thrilling portion of his confession deals with the attempts to destroy the $16,000,000 Queensborough bridge, which spans the East river at Blackwell's island, which Davis was offered $500 to destroy.

His confession, in this particular, is full of human interest, since he declined to blow up the bridge for less than $2,500, because he feared to injure men working in a power-house below the bridge.

Chosen to Kill Drew.

Davis says he was the man chosen to kill Walter Drew, attorney for the National Erectors' association. In December, 1911, after Drew was charged with kidnapping John J. McNamara. It was suggested also he try to "get" William J. Burns, the detective employed by Drew and his associates to unearth the dynamite conspiracy.

The price on Drew's head at that time, Davis said, was $5,000. "I told them," his confession continues, "that I didn't want to mix up in such business."

Davis consented to return to Indianapolis without extradition. The conspiracy thought to have been broken up by the conviction of Ryan and others still exists, according to Davis' confession. With the exception of Harry Jones, the men he mentions in connection with his various dynamite jobs already have been arrested, although his confession indicated the government had not obtained all the incriminating evidence against these defendants when they were tried at Indianapolis.

"McManigal of the East."

The apprehension of this "McManigal of the East" was due to Robert Foster, a Louisville detective, who shadowed the iron worker through eastern cities. Finally, several weeks ago, when Davis was displeased with his treatment by the union, Foster persuaded him to make a full confession.

In careful detail the confession described how Davis blew up or tried to blow up buildings and bridges in various cities and towns of the east. In his preparation of plans to destroy a new building in Fall River on April 26, 1908, he was arrested and served two years.

One of his latest exploits was dynamiting a bridge at Mount Vernon under the direction of Frank C. Webb, a New York member of the executive committee of the union, who is now serving six years in prison.

A feature of Davis' statement was a story of a gigantic scheme to set off simultaneous explosions in Omaha, San Francisco, St. Louis and New York city while the McNamaras were in jail. The consummation of the plot was nipped by the confession of the two men in jail.

THANKSGIVING DAY CHANGE IS SOUGHT

Wilson Asked to Set Holiday on Anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

ILLINOIS STARTS MOVEMENT

Leading Politicians and Executive of the State Favor Plan and Will Confer Next Week to Draw Up Petition.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 3.—Several prominent citizens of Illinois will next week address a memorial to President Wilson urging him to designate Wednesday, November 19, as Thanksgiving day this year.

Never in the history of the nation, so far as is known, has the president been asked to deviate from the established custom of proclaiming the last Thursday in November the day for national thanksgiving. The occasion considered of sufficient importance to justify such a movement is the fiftieth anniversary of the delivery by Abraham Lincoln of his Gettysburg address.

In the opinion of those back of the movement, Thanksgiving day has lost much of its significance to the people generally. It is believed that by fixing it upon the semi-centennial of the delivery of the masterpiece of American oratory the occasion will take on a new significance.

Dunne to Call Conference.

Governor Dunne has signified a willingness to call a conference of leaders of all political parties next week for the purpose of preparing a memorial upon the subject to President Wilson. It is probable that Thursday will be named as the day for the conference.

The governor, United States senators Sherman and Lewis, State Superintendent of Schools Blair and State Senators Magill and Piercy are among those who already have expressed themselves in hearty accord with the movement, which is expected to meet with general favor throughout the entire country.

United States Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman endorsed the idea in the following language:

"The celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the delivery of Lincoln's Gettysburg address is fit to be observed as Thanksgiving of this year. It is the most enduring of Civil War literature. The simplicity of composition and nobility of thought appeal to all. It was uttered at a time when doubt and fear assailed many loyal hearts."

"The memory of this address cannot be more appropriately preserved and renewed than by making it a part of our Thanksgiving thoughts."

FREE "REDS" FINED BY JUDGE

Seattle Colleagues of Humphries Allow Habeas Corpus Pleas.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 3.—After Superior Judge John E. Humphries had sent twelve men and six women to the county jail for contempt of his court, a consultation of other judges of the superior court was held. Thorwald Siegfried, an attorney who previously had complained to the Bar association of Judge Humphries' excessive use of the writ of injunction, was requested to apply for a writ of habeas corpus for the prisoners.

Mr. Siegfried applied to Judge Everett Smith for the release of Glenn Hoover, attorney for the Free Speech Defense league and former assistant attorney general of Washington, and G. M. Hodgson, one of the signers of "resolutions of protest" against Judge Humphries' anti-street speaking injunctions, and they were released on their own recognizance. Each had a short time before been sentenced to pay a $10 fine for contempt, while in addition Hoover had been "forever disbarred" by Judge Humphries and Hodgson had been sent to jail for six months.

Judge Smith said he would release all the prisoners who sought freedom on writs of habeas corpus.

CHINESE SLAY U. S. CHILD

Brigands Commit Murder and Are Maltreating Other Foreigners.

Peking, Oct. 3.—The American legation received from J. Paul Jameson, vice-consul at Shanghai, a report saying the little son of Rev. Harmon Fauske, attached to the American mission of the Lutheran Brethren, had been killed and other foreigners were being maltreated by Chinese brigands at TsaoYang.

The legation fears that the Chinese government troops are neither capable nor zealous enough to effect the release of the American and Norwegian missionaries in the hands of the bandits.

At Hankow General Li Yuen Heng, vice-president of the republic, said that everything possible was being done. Nearly 3,000 Chinese troops are advancing on TsaoYang.

Seeks Release After Years.

Leavenworth, Kan., Oct. 3.—After 19 years "Jap" Raney, life term, surprised S. T. Seator, pardon clerk, by begging for his release. Raney, who is now fifty years old, was received at Lansing, June 12, 1894, from Miami county. He had been sentenced for life for murder.

Great-Grandmother of Dolls.

In an article entitled "Doll Children—Old and New," published in the Woman's Home Companion, appears the following: "Now here is about the nicest thing I ever knew a little girl to do with her dolls. She is a particular friend of mine, this little girl, and she has a good many dolls. Out of the number she selected the four which she liked best. One was Betty Lou, a darling doll dressed like a darling little girl of today. The second one was dressed as Beatty Lou's mother, in a fashion of about thirty years ago. The third one was dressed like Betty Lou's grandmother—not an old lady, you understand, but Betty Lou's grandmother when that grandmother was a young girl—a costume such as lovely ladies were wearing about the time of the Civil war. The fourth doll was dressed as Betty Lou's great-grandmother would have dressed, way back in 1830."

Kissing Was the Style Then.

Kissing is almost a lost art in England. Its universal prevalence in the seventeenth century was the wonder of the foreigner. Nicolaus de Bethlen, who visited this country in 1663, relates that "my brother and I behaved very rudely on one occasion, being unaware that it was customary in that country to kiss the corner of the mouth of women, instead of shaking hands as we do in Hungary. We were invited to dine at the house of a man of high rank, and found his wife and three daughters (none of them married) ready to receive us. We kissed the girls, but not the married women, and thereby greatly offended the latter. Duval apologized for our blunder, and told us when saluting we must always kiss the senior women first and leave the girls to the last."

Hints for Authors.

The writer of fiction, who also looks for steady success, must never by any chance get himself labelled. As soon as he finds the critics saying, "This man writes sensation," or "This man writes sentiment," as the case may be, that is the moment when he must suddenly switch off to something else. Like Charles Dickens, I believe in experiment. In my own work I have frequently resorted to it, and in nine cases out of ten it has proved a success. Furthermore, the novelist must ever remember that the public taste is constantly changing. I myself would never dream writing today the stories which I may say were by no means unsuccessful.—Tom Gallon, in The Daily Citizen.

Placed on Retired List.

Dr. I. Villars, the venerable chaplain of the Joliet penitentiary, at his request was placed on the superannuated list. He has served there for six years and is greatly beloved by the men with whom he has come in contact. He feels that the weight of his advancing years renders him unfit for the strenuous and often trying duties of his appointment and asks to be relieved.

Rev. Wilford J. Abel of Morrison, against whom complaints of a serious nature were lodged, withdrew from the conference.

Rev. Rudolph Doenges, at Steward, was transferred to the Oklahoma conference.

Urges Social Philosophy.

Dr. Harry Ward, free lancer and organizer of the social service commission in 47 conferences, gave an interesting address yesterday afternoon, presenting the idea that the church must adapt itself to a reconstruction of the social order. There was a time, he said, when people realized the existence of law in the natural realm but failing to perceive its action in the spiritual world. That chasm has been bridged and people now see the operation of law in the social relation. Only when this is realized will we be on the way to a solution of class problems. We cling to the 18th century ideals of individualism and are not alive to the gospel of social service.

A working class philosophy has been evolved that teaches the operation of law in the social order. There is a fundamental truth in this law of economic determinism, but the pulpit must turn against it the greater law of love in social relations.

EFFICIENT DAIRY COW
MONEY MAKER ON FARM

The following is a paper written by a dairy student at the University of Illinois. Such papers are required weekly as outside work in this particular class. The subject is "The Importance of Efficient Dairy Cows," and the points brought out are well worth the attention of the best dairy men. The paper should show how practical these courses are:

The cow is considered one of the most important factors, if not the most important, in profitable dairying. The cow should be the market place for the dairyman's products. Therefore the efficiency of the cow consuming these products is dependent upon the prices. If a man were selling his grain, he would get the highest price, but it is safe to say that one-third of the dairymen continue to feed and care for cows that do not pay market prices for grain and hay consumed.

How Many Know Production.

How many of the dairymen know the production of their cows or the loss or gain of each cow, or even the herd? How many of them know what an efficient cow is? I think it would be safe to say that one-third of the dairymen know what they are doing. There is too much guess-work done. Too much judging of the milk pail and not enough weighing and testing.

The dairyman usually changes his judgment of which cows he thought best and poorest after weighing and testing the milk. I have been referred to a case in which the owner of a herd picked out the cows he thought best and poorest, and after weighing and testing the milk for a year they were turned completely around. This goes to show that guess work cannot be depended upon.

If you know that one-third of the cows in Illinois were making money, one-third paying their board and one-third losing money, would you think this a very important question? This is the actual condition under which we are laboring. If the cows that were losing money were weeded out of every herd leaving the profitable ones, think of the amount of work that would be done away with, and at the same time the profit would be greater.

Important as Medical Education.

The actual testing of many of the Illinois herds show that many cows do not pay for the feed eaten if it had been sold at market price. There are dairymen paying five dollars annually to milk and care for a cow. Is it any wonder that dairying is not a profitable business? The efficiency of the cow is just as important to profitable dairying as a medical education is to a doctor.

The following table shows the approximate profit or loss for a year over all expenses of labor, service fee, interest and depreciation on the cows and utensils, on cows giving different amounts of milk:

Pounds of Milk per year	Pounds of Butter Fat	Profit Per year
2,000	80	$18
3,000	120	9
4,000	160	00
5,000	200	10
6,000	240	20
8,000	320	40
10,000	400	63

Same Profit from One Cow as Six.

It can be clearly seen by the table that there is a great difference in profit between cows of different production. A cow giving less than 5000 pounds of milk is not making money and yet two-thirds of the cows in this state are very close to this. A cow giving 6000 pounds of milk, one fifth more than a 5000 pound cow, makes twice the profit. A 10,000 pound cow produces twice as much milk as a 5000 pound cow, but her profit is six times as great, or one 10,000 pound cow is bringing as much profit as six 5000 pound cows. Would you rather milk and care for six cows or one cow?

It will be noticed that the higher the production of a cow, the more economical producer she is. This is largely due to the fact that all cows, whether good or bad, have approximately the same maintenance ration. The housing and service fee is no more for a good cow than for a poor one. The calf and manure of the high producer is worth more than that of the low producer. A 10,000 pound cow has a great advantage over a poor cow. Her calves are wanted at higher prices. The bull calf of a 10,000 pound cow and a good sire is much better than the average herd bull of Illinois.

Should be Persistent.

The persistency of the cow is of importance. Some cows will start out when first freshening and give a large flow of milk for the first few months, then dwindle down very low and dry up about the eighth or ninth month. On the other hand there are cows which will start out and give a moderate amount of milk and keep it up ten or eleven months. The most efficient cow is usually the steady, persistent cow. Persistency is hard to judge without the scales and the tester.

Surprising Difference in Calves.

Other cows will produce good quantities of milk for two or three years, then fail to breed or from other cause fail to produce milk any longer. To show how important this is take a cow that produces two calves, one a heifer, and then refuses to milk longer. It can be clearly seen with a little figuring that at the end of ten generations there would only be one heifer calf. This is counting one-half of the calves heifers, and providing the cow is disposed of at the end of her milking period.

Then take a cow that has twelve calves, of which six are heifers, at the end of ten generations there would be 60,466,176 producing cows. Does this look like a matter of very great importance to the dairyman? Longevity means a great deal and by always testing the cows you will have records for all the cows and the dams which will be valuable for grading up in breeding.

LICENSED TO WED

A marriage license was issued today to Daniel J. Gallagher and Miss Mary C. Pye, both of Pawpaw.

Among kings there is no conditional royalty. Manuel of Portugal remains a king in the king row, and a little drawback like the loss of a kingdom doesn't affect his regal standing. There is something amusing about the serious fashion in which these title bearers assume inalienable rights.

Somebody in St. Louis suggested a searchlight on top of a new skyscraper there to aid in the detection of crime. The chief of the prevention bureau doubted its value in that direction, but thought it would be of assistance in locating fires. Hunting fires with a searchlight! Can you beat it?

MRS HARTZELL TO SPEAK AT INSTITUTE

Miss Mabel Hartzell, teacher of the Pine View school near Franklin Grove, has been accorded an honor which her many friends believe is merited, in being selected to address the county school section of the Northern Illinois Teachers' Institute, which meets at Rockford Nov. 7th, on the subject of "The Value and Possibilities of Vocational Work in the Rural Schools." Miss Hartzell's success in this specialty has been most remarkable, and as a result of her enthusiastic and knowing advocacy of the work at recent county teachers' institutes, she has been instrumental in having the course established in many of the schools of the county; and her engagement to present the subject to the county school teachers of all of the northern Illinois section is certainly a tribute to her ability.

GIRLS! CLEAN AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR NO MORE DANDRUFF--25 CENT DANDERINE

MAKES IT GLOSSY, SOFT AND ABUNDANT.

Surely a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" is a wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

Hale's First Watch.

The first watch was a small clock, of course. In 1477 Peter Hale, a clockmaker of Nuremberg, made a clock in the form of an egg, which could be carried in the pocket. The production of this cost a year's labor; it was considered one of the wonders of the world and valued by its maker at a price equal to $1,500 at the present time. And yet it required winding twice a day and varied an hour a day from the correct time. Hale probably invented the fusee spring, but the hairspring was the invention of Dr. Robert Hooke, an Englishman, in 1658, and Hooke was also the first to use the lever escapement. In 1666. The use of jewels for the bearings of the pivots was introduced about 1700, and the compensation balance was invented in 1767. There is no doubt, however, that Gerbet, who subsequently became pope as Sylvester II, did construct a wheel and weight clock at Magdeburg in 996. And within the next 300 years a number of tower clocks of great size and elaborate workmanship were set up in the churches of Europe and of England.

First Airman Honored.

A tablet has just been unveiled in the Smithsonian institution at Washington to the memory of Prof. Langley, who first constructed a heavier than air machine which "flew." He died before he saw his hopes realized in any practical manner, but it is undoubted that to his researches, discoveries and experiments we owe the aviation of today. This tribute is the more appropriate because Professor Langley was soundly abused by many so-called men of science in his day, who insisted that he was engaged in a wild-goose chase, that he was expending money of the institution to gratify personal whims, which could not possibly benefit mankind under the terms of the Smithsonian will.

Big Men and Little.

The man who is big enough to get toward the top in any line of work usually is built on a big scale. Petty things are beneath him. He isn't interested in getting small advantages. You can be sure of him in all your dealings. It is the small man who bears watching.

Sand and Glass.

Sand is the main constituent of glass, constituting from 52 to 65 per cent of the mass of the original mixture, or from 60 to 75 per cent of the finished product, after melting of the volatile carbon dioxide and other volatile materials. On the quality of the sand depend the transparency, brilliancy and hardness of the glass.

Checks Up the Hens.

In the effort to secure an accurate record of the hen's egg achievements, an aluminum crayon holder has been invented by which the chicken makes her mark as she leaves the nest. The crayon is mounted on the foot, and the color of the crayon indicates the particular bird.

Smoke.

Smoke is no composed of gases only, but of solid, or perhaps partly liquid, particles, which are mixed with the gases and carried along by them. It is three particles of matter that are visible to the eye, and not the gases themselves.—St. Nicholas.

Ad Hominem.

Man with the Bulbous Nose—One or two baths a week. I tell you, are about all a busy man has time to take. Man with the Bulging Brow—How do you know?

Open Road.

If a man has a message to deliver he must drive it home through women. It is the women who are listening today; women do not analyze; they realize.

Naphthalene a Good Insecticide.

The question as to whether naphthalene is to be recommended as an insecticide, is discussed by the French scientists, Lecaillon and Audige. This substance is commonly sold in the shape of small balls and is used in households, especially for preserving furs or various fabrics, but it appears that after being a favorite its use is falling off. They find that the toxic effect only takes place in a confined atmosphere and its action is slow. Furs or garments should be thus preserved in a tight receptacle as possible. It can also be used in horticulture in greenhouses for protection against aphides and the like, but it appears to have no effect upon earthworms.

Turkish Tobacco Crop Short.

Much of the best Turkish tobacco is grown on soil from which the Turks have been driven by the Bulgarians, Servians and Greeks in the present war, and it is estimated that the crop will be short for the next three years at least. In many instances it is claimed that two-thirds of the population of the villages have gone. Importers, however, are always prepared for emergencies by having two years supply of Turkish leaf stored away. Just now there are about 300,000 bales piled up in bonded warehouses in New York.

Nature Provides Blankets.

Nature is kind in Ecuador. When a native wants a blanket he goes to a demajagua tree and cuts from it a strip of peculiarly soft, thick bark, five or six feet long. This is dampened and beaten until the flexibility of the sheet is much increased. The rough, gray exterior is next peeled off and the sheet dried in the sun. The result is a blanket, soft, light, and fairly warm, of an attractive cream color. It may be rolled into a compact bundle without hurt, and with ordinary usage will last for several years.

Saw Chance for Peace.

Goldstein enlisted in the army. He was sent to the Philippines, and there his regiment was ordered to subdue some natives who were on the warpath. Before an engagement the captain of Goldstein's company addressed his men. "Soldiers," he said, "we will soon meet our enemy face to face. Every man must do his duty." "Couldn't I meet him first?" asked Goldstein. "I'd like to compromise with him."

Waltz Tunes From "Waits."

Even so old-fashioned an institution as the Christmas "waits" is beginning to be influenced by modern fashion. The nocturnal players who anapest one part of London have made a clean sweep of hymns and other music of the kind, their repertoire consisting entirely of the most modern Viennese waltzes. Although this is less melancholy to listen to in the small hours, its appropriateness is open to question.

SENATE ACCEPTS NEW TARIFF BILL

Conference Report Passed With Cotton Futures Tax Plan Eliminated.

WILSON TO SIGN BILL TODAY

Treasury Department Prepares to Put New Rates Into Immediate Effect
—Final Vote on Measure Is 36 to 17.

Washington, Oct. 3.—The Democratic tariff revision bill probably will be in the hands of President Wilson for his signature by tonight. The senate at the end of a listless debate passed the conference report by a vote of 36 to 17, only four more than the necessary quorum of the senate.

All reference to a tax on cotton futures was expunged. It will be signed by the speaker and vice-president today, immediately after twelve o'clock, and transmitted to the president. It should be a law before night. The new law goes into operation the day following its approval, with the exception of rates on wool and sugar. Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, Republican, who voted with the Democrats on the passage of the bill, voted with the Democrats, and Senators Thornton and Ransdell, Democrats of Louisiana, who voted against the bill on account of free sugar, were against the conference report last night.

Further Proceedings Simple.

The parliamentary proceedings still necessary to change the tariff bill into the new Democratic tariff law are simple. When the bill is messaged over to the house today the action of the senate will be officially announced and the bill will be laid on the speaker's desk. Speaker Clark will affix his signature and officially declare that fact. The engrossed bill, thus signed, will be sent to the senate, where Vice-President Marshall will put his name below that of the speaker. A messenger in waiting will rush the bill to the White House and President Wilson will perform the last act that puts into effect the first of the great political measures of his administration.

The end of the long and wearisome fight over the tariff in the senate came with typical Democratic simplicity. The galleries were only sparsely filled. Secretary and Mrs. Tumulty were the only distinguished visitors in the private gallery. Members of the house were conspicuous by their absence.

Vote Follows Penrose Speech.

Many Republican senators were absent without being paired. Senator Penrose had been speaking off and on all the evening. He had just concluded a colloquy with Senator Shively, in which the Pennsylvania had charged that the bill was sectional and cited free cotton baling and a duty of one cent a pound on rice, as against free wheat, as a proof of his contention.

As Mr. Penrose took his seat the motion to agree in the conference report came up automatically and was put by the vice-president. The roll was called with the result given. When Mr. LaFollette responded in the affirmative there was not a sign of demonstration. Neither was there an intimation of disapproval when the Louisiana senators voted against their party. The vote was taken and the result announced amid absolute silence.

Mr. Simmons immediately moved that the senate disagree to the substitute of the house to the cotton futures tax section. This was agreed to informally and again the chairman of the committee moved that the senate recede from its amendment—the Clark tax on cotton futures. This was adopted without a roll call and without a dissenting voice.

Executive Session Follows.

Senator Bacon moved an executive session, the small crowd in the galleries filed out and the regular business of the senate proceeded.

Speaker Clark and other authorities on parliamentary law and the house rules, including Asher Hinds, for many years parliamentary clerk to the speaker and now a member of the house, agreed that the senate having receded from its amendment on the cotton futures, no further vote will be necessary in the house when the bill gets there.

WITH GIRL, OELRICHS ADMITS

Denies He Stabbed Miss Singleton, as She Charges.

New York, Oct. 3.—Herman Oelrichs, through his counsel, Charles H. Strong, admitted that he was with Miss Lucille Singleton when his car was wrecked and the young woman and himself were hurt. He denied as emphatically as possible that he had stabbed her or that a quarrel had led to the accident to the car. Young Mr. Oelrichs was arraigned before Magistrate Krotel in the Harlem police court on the charge of felonious assault made by Miss Singleton, but the girl was too ill to appear in court and the case was adjourned until October 7.

North Pole Party Rescued.

Copenhagen, Denmark, Oct. 3.—The Russian north polar expedition under Lieutenant Seday has been rescued at Noviy Zemlya.

Countess de la Rocca is the wife of the charge d'affaires of the French embassy at Washington. The countess is prominent in the social affairs of the diplomatic circle at the capital.

CANAL IS UNSCATHED

Takes More Than Ordinary Tremors to Wreck Ditch.

Too Elates Officials—Greatest Damage Reported From Los Santos Province.

Panama, Oct. 3.—"Absolutely no damage was done by the earthquake to any part of the canal."

This signed statement was issued by Col. George W. Goethals, chairman and chief engineer of the isthmian canal commission.

The canal officials are greatly pleased over the fact that within the space of one week the Gatun locks have been called upon to respond to two supreme tests and in each case proved equal to the demand.

On Friday last it was demonstrated that the lock operating mechanism works perfectly and that vessels can be locked through at will.

While the earthquake test was not figured on, still, in one sense of the word, the event came opportunely, inasmuch as it has showed to the world that it will take more than the ordinary earthquake to cause irreparable damage to the lock structures and dams.

Lieutenant Colonel Sibert went over the greater part of the Gatun locks in person and satisfied himself that there had been no damage.

The president of Panama, Dr. Bellario Porras, personally inspected the canal works and learned with great relief that the quake had left the canal unharmed.

Reports received from different parts of the isthmus indicate that the disturbance was purely of a local character, with the greatest intensity in Los Santos province, 129 miles from this city. A late dispatch from the city of Los Santos estimates the damage there at $25,000, and in the entire province at $100,000.

Twenty-six tremors were counted in Los Santos city. No lives are reported lost with the exception of one death from fright.

CASH WON HUERTA OVER

Letter From Mexico City Says Clerical Party Made Offer.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Details of the deal made between General Huerta and the Catholic party leaders, which resulted in the promise of the provisional president of Mexico to support Gamboa as candidate of the clericals, are contained in a letter received from Mexico City. This letter says the clericals agreed to raise $15,000,000 for the Huerta government in installments, the internal revenue to be given as security for the immediate loan. To insure payment, Mr. Helgoero, president of the clerical party in the chamber of deputies, was made director of the stamp bureau, which has the handling of all internal revenues.

Piedras Negras, Mex., Oct. 3.—A filibustering expedition attempted to capture Piedras Negras from the American side of the Rio Grande. It was repulsed by the border patrol and the neutral guards placed in charge of the city after the constitutionalist evacuation.

O'CONNOR IS SENTENCED

Joliet (Ill.) Broker Draws Indeterminate Period in Prison for Frauds.

Joliet, Ill., Oct. 3.—James C. O'Connor, a real estate broker, who has been indicted on 20 counts, charging forgery, larceny by bailor and operating a confidence game, went before Judge F. L. Hooper and plead guilty. He was given a sentence of from one to fourteen years.

Steal Entire Cloth Stock.

Decatur, Ill., Oct. 3.—When Harry Goebblats opened up his clothing store at Taylorville he found that practically his entire stock had disappeared during the night. Thieves had carried off the goods in a wagon.

Johnson Signs With Washington.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Walter Johnson signed a contract with the Washington baseball club at a salary of $12,500 per year for the season of 1914.

Soda crackers are more nutritive than any other flour food. Uneeda Biscuit are the perfect soda crackers.

Though the cost is but five cents, Uneeda Biscuit are too good, too nourishing, too crisp, to be bought merely as an economy.

Buy them because of their freshness—because of their crispness—because of their goodness—because of their nourishment.

Mad as a Wet Hen.

"Billy," exclaimed Mrs. Brown, "why are you carrying that pail of water down to the chicken yard?" "Why, mamma, I'm going to pour it on that old speckled hen." "You naughty boy! What are you going to torture a poor dumb creature for?" "Quiteher kiddin' me, ma. I only wanted to find out how mad you'd be if papa went to the banquet of the Tough Knut society tonight. Papa said over the phone that you'd be as mad as a—" He didn't need to finish. The poor kid found out right then how mad his mamma would be.

"Pecceci," I Have Sinned.

Gen. Sir Charles James Napier, who conquered the Indian province of Sind in 1843 by the decisive battles of Meeanee and Hyderabad undoubtedly, if the story be true, sent the shortest dispatch on record to Lord Ellenborough, the governor-general of India. It was one word: "Pecceci." It will thus be seen that Caesar and Tullyrand were "not in it" with Napier and must be relegated to the rear in the matter of condensation of facts.

Hats Off.

Mrs. Styles—"Who is that woman you just took off your hat to?" Mr. Styles—"I don't know." "You don't know her, and yet you took your hat off to her?" "Precisely. You see, she sat in front of me at the theater, the other night, and she took her hat off. Now I take off my hat to her."

Roll On.

Bacon—"I see the bilge keels on battleships are being made large to prevent excessive rolling." Egbert—"Gee! Hope they don't put 'em on the Ship of State."

Women's Opinion of Women.

Men have an absurd notion that we can't admire another woman or admit her good points. It isn't so. We admire a pretty woman just as much as you do. The only difference is you men think that if a woman has a lovely face it follows as the night the day that she must have a lovely disposition. We know better, that's all.—From "Olivian in India."

The Marching Song.

No one knows the inspiration of a tramping song better than the soldier, and most regiments have their favorite airs, which they love to yell when on march. The men of the Manchester regiment have a fine reputation for singing on the march, and two of their favorite songs are "Killaloe" and "Brian Boru," both of which give opportunity for some hearty shouts at intervals. Similarly the Yorkshires, when route marching, enliven the way with "Dan Tucker," a song in which the words are of no account and the tune a series of diabolical yells.—London Chronicle.

Zephie had an appetite,
He was always nearly famished Till bread was made of Zephyr Flour,
And now his hunger's banished.

Everybody likes the delicious Bread, Cakes and Pies that are baked with Zephyr Flour. No others so good. Bake them yourself, buy them at the baker's, eat plenty. They are good and good for you.

Zephyr Flour is the "Good Luck" baking flour that's made from select hard wheat. It bakes the same way every day, because it is analyzed every two hours as it is being ground at the mill. Mill bakings every two hours.

Mothers, listen to me: Get the Zephyr Flour habit. It means good cheer, good appetite, good digestion and good health for all who eat at your table.

SLEW INSANE PATIENT

PRISONER IMPLICATES TWO OTH-ER ATTENDANTS.

Mystery in Killing of Carl Holst an Aged Man, Cleared by Statement of W. Wolfe.

Kankakee, Ill., Oct. 2.—William Wolfe of Nashville, N. C., formerly employed as an attendant at the Kankakee hospital for the insane, confessed the murder of Carl G. Holst of Paxton, Ill., seventy-eight years old, patient at the institution.

In his confession, made to State's Attorney W. H. Dyer, he implicated John Matham, the employe in charge of the ward where Holst was a patient, and also one other attendant.

Mahan was arrested and will be given a hearing today. Wolfe was arrested June 23 on the charge of murdering Holst.

The third man implicated in the tragedy has left the hospital and his whereabouts are not known to the authorities.

In implicating Mahan and the other employe Wolfe said that Holst was a restless patient.

Holst died March 4, 1913. He was a Ford county patient, admitted to the state hospital February 26. After his death Coroner Fenouille ordered a post-mortem examination. This disclosed that six of the patient's ribs had been broken.

GIRL, 4, CROSSES SEA ALONE

"Please Do Not Kiss Me," Is Placard Stitched to Dress of Little Tourist from Austria.

New York, Oct. 2.—Stitched to the skirt of a four-year-old child who reached here unattended on the liner Kron Prinzessin Cecilie, was a placard on which was written in several languages:

"Please take care of me. I am going to my mamma. Please do not kiss me."

The little girl, Margaretha Ritschen, came from a town near Vienna, where her mother had left her in a relative's care on marrying for a second time, and emigrating with her new husband to Kenwood, Sonoma county, California. Recently the mother sent for her daughter, who on reaching her destination will have traveled about 7,000 miles.

Smith increasing from $250,000 to $325,000 the limit of cost for a federal building at Augusta, Ga.

OF LOCAL INTEREST

SOME PEOPLE WE KNOW, AND WE WILL PROFIT BY HEARING ABOUT THEM

This is purely a local event. It took place in Dixon. Not in some faraway place. You are asked to investigate it. Asked to believe a citizen's word. To confirm a citizen's statement. Any article that is endorsed at Home is more worthy of confidence. Than one you know nothing about. Endorsed by unknown people. Julius Gottlieb, merchant, 418 W. First St., Dixon, Ill., says: "My back had been causing me trouble. Often it was so lame and sore that it was hard to bend over. The kidney action was irregular and I knew that my kidneys were disordered. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a supply at Leake Bros. Co's Drug store. They did such good work that I recommended them. I am glad to do so again."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo New York, sole agents for the United States.
